

Lisbon

You can rearrange the order of the days by your needs

Day 1 – Graça e Alfama

- Casa dos bicos / Fundação José Saramago
- Sé de Lisboa
- Miradouro das Portas do Sol
- Castelo de S. Jorge
- Lunch at: O Pitêu da Graça (typical Portuguese cuisine and not a tourist trap – You need to call in advance to make a reservation - +351 218871067)
- Miradouro Senhora do Monte
- Miradouro da Graça (have a drink in the terrace)
- Jardim Botto Machado / Mercado de Santa Clara
- Panteão Nacional
- Mosteiro de São Vicente de Fora (if possible go up the tower)
- Miradouro de Santo Estêvão
- Get lost in Alfama
- Dinner at: Parreirinha de Alfama (You need a reservation in advance because this is a Fado's House, so you will be eating while people are live singing Fado, it's also a bit more expensive - +351 218868209)

Day 2 – Baixa de Lisboa

- Elevador da Glória
- Miradouro de São Pedro de Alcântara
- Bairro Alto
- Miradouro de Santa Catarina (Adamastor)
- Praça de Luís de Camões
- Lunch at: Taberna Meia Porta
- Go to A Brasileira and grab a coffee next to the statue of Fernando Pessoa
- Museu Arqueológico do Carmo
- Elevador de Santa Justa (Go down the lift)
- Follow the Rua Augusta to Praça do Comercio
- Praça da Figueira
- Rua das Portas de Santo Antão
- Manteigaria Silva
- Drink a ginjinha at Gingijinha do Rossio
- Dinner at: Solar dos Presuntos (Reservation - +351 213424253)

Day 3 – Belém

This is the day full of tourist traps but I don't think you can avoid them here

- Mosteiro dos Jerónimos
- Eat a Pastel de Nata at Pastéis de Belém (if the line is too big you can also go across the street to Manteigaria, some people say they are even better)
- Museu Nacional dos Coches – Antigo Picadeiro Real
- Museu Nacional dos Coches
- Lunch at: Canalha small Portuguese tapas (petiscos); (No reservation needed - +351 962152742)
- Padrão dos Descobrimentos
- Torre de Belém
- Centro Cultural de Belém
- Dinner at: Clube Naval de Lisboa (No reservation needed - +351 213636014)

Day 4 – Sintra

This day you should go by car. PS: If this day happens to be Sunday, you won't pay the museums (they're expensive)

- Palácio Nacional da Pena – Park there
- Castelo dos Mouros – Park there
- Lunch at: Adega do Saloio (Better make reservation - +351 219231422) – Park there
- Stop by Casa do Preto to buy some Travesseiros de Sintra and Queijadas de Sintra

Try to park as close as possible to Sintra Old town (from here on you go by walking)

- Quinta da Regaleira
- Palácio Nacional de Sintra
- Get lost in the old town
- Cabo da Roca
- Dinner at: Restaurante Refúgio da Roca (Amazing grilled fish and I also suggest the Lulas na Telha)(No reservation needed - +351 219290898)

Day 5 – Cascais

This day you should go by car.

- Parque Marechal Carmona – Park there
- Mirador Casa de Santa Maria
- Baía de Cascais
- Old Town Cascais

- Lunch at: Taberna Clandestina Cascais, eat some petiscos (tapas) (No need for reservation - +351 916229630)
 - Or at: O Pescador for grilled fish (214832054)
- Boca do Inferno
- Praia do Guincho
- Dinner at: Furnas do Guincho (Expensive and kinda classy restaurant but great spot)(Better to make reservation - +351 214869243)
